OPERATIVE PROVISIONS

INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this deed unless the contrary intention appears:

“ancillary agreement” means any existing or future agreement (including, without limitation, the agreement(s) (if any) noted in the schedule) made between the native title party and the grantee party or any other person in connection with the grant of the title(s) and/or the grantee party exercising its rights and discharging its obligations under the title(s);

“arbitral body”, “future act”, “native title”, “native title claim group”, “native title rights and interests”, “Register of Native Title Claims”, “relevant Minister” and “registered native title claimant” have the same meanings as they have in the Native Title Act;

“Native Title Act” means the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth), as amended from time to time.

“native title claim” means the native title determination application made by the native title party to the Federal Court under Part 3 of the Native Title Act described in the schedule;

“subject land” means the land the subject of the application for title(s);

“title(s)” means the petroleum title(s) to be granted pursuant to the application described in the schedule.

“Petroleum Act” means the Petroleum and Geothermal Energy Resources Act 1967 (WA), as amended from time to time.

“petroleum title” means a retention lease for petroleum under Part III of the Petroleum Act, a production licence for petroleum under Part III of the Petroleum Act, an exploration permit for petroleum or geothermal energy under Part III of the Petroleum Act, or a drilling reservation for petroleum under Part III of the Petroleum Act.

1.2 In this deed, unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) the word “person” includes a firm, body corporate, statutory corporation, an unincorporated association or an authority and a reference to a gender includes each other gender;

- (b) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
- (c) a reference to a person includes a reference to the person's executors, administrators, successors, substitutes (including but not limited to persons taking by novation) and assigns;
- (d) an agreement, representation or warranty on the part of or in favour of two or more persons binds or is for the benefit of them jointly and severally; and
- (e) a reference to anything is a reference to the whole or any part of it and a reference to a group of persons is a reference to any one or more of them.

AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO DEED

- 2. The native title party represents and warrants that all necessary authorisations have been obtained to enter into this deed and this deed is valid and binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms against the native title party and all the persons included in the native title claim group.

AGREEMENT TO GRANT OF TITLE

- 3. The native title party:
 - (a) agrees to the grant of the title(s) and to the grantee party exercising its rights and discharging its obligations under the title(s); and
 - (b) acknowledges that this deed is an agreement for the purpose of section 28(1)(f) and section 31(1)(b) of the Native Title Act.

COMPENSATION TO BE SET OFF

- 4.1 Clauses 4.2 and 4.3 apply if a native title party:
 - (a) receives or is entitled to receive from the grantee party or any other person any compensation, benefit or consideration ("compensation entitlement") whether under any ancillary agreement or otherwise; and
 - (b) makes any claim for compensation, damages or other relief whatsoever against the Government party or any officer or agency of the Government party ("compensation claim") in connection with the grant of the title(s) and/or the grantee party exercising its rights or discharging its obligations under the title(s) and their claimed effect on any native title rights and interests of the native title party, whether the compensation claim arises under the Native Title Act or otherwise.

- 4.2 The native title party agrees that the compensation entitlement is to be taken into account in determining and is to be set off against any compensation claim whether that claim is determined by agreement of the parties or by a court or body having jurisdiction or power to make a determination in relation to the compensation claim.
- 4.3 The native title party and the grantee party agree that if the native title party makes a compensation claim then at the request of the Government party they:
- (a) will provide full particulars including a statement of account of the compensation entitlement; and
 - (b) produce for inspection and copying any document (as that word is defined in the dictionary to the Evidence Act 1995 (Commonwealth)) relating to the compensation entitlement including without limitation any ancillary agreement.

GOVERNMENT PARTY NOT LIABLE FOR ANCILLARY AGREEMENT

5. The native title party and the grantee party acknowledge that neither the Government party nor its officers, employees or agents have any obligations or liability whatsoever in connection with the rights and obligations of the native title party or the grantee party under an ancillary agreement.

CONDITIONS

- 6.1 Clauses 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3 of this deed constitute conditions to be complied with by the parties for the purposes of subsections 41(1) and 41(2) of the Native Title Act, and all persons included in the native title claim group are taken to be parties in respect of those clauses.
- 6.2 The terms of this deed, other than clause 3, and of any ancillary agreement are not conditions precedent nor conditions subsequent to the agreement of the native title party to the grant of the title(s) and to the grantee party exercising its rights and discharging its obligations under the title(s).
- 6.3 The provisions of this deed and of any ancillary agreement are not conditions of the title(s) when granted under the Petroleum Act.
