

News Archives

May

Latest News | Departmental Headlines | Industry Headlines | Minister Headlines

Monday, 21 May 2012

State Budget gives Exploration Incentive Scheme a boost Funding from the 2012-13 State Budget highlights WA's intentions to attract international exploration investment. Read more...

Monday, 21 May 2012

DMP launches Environment e-Newsletter The Department of Mines and Petroleum has launched an Environment e-Newsletter to provide key stakeholders with the latest environmental news, updates and events. Read more...

Wednesday, 16 May 2012

Research Institute to help drive discoveries With $7.5million in State Government funding, a new Minerals Research Institute is being set up in WA, promoting mineral research. Read more...

Wednesday, 16 May 2012

Resources research gets scholarship boost Seven WA post-graduate students will use their scholarships to carry out research projects in the mineral and energy industries. Read more...

Monday, 14 May 2012

Uranium report and response released by DMP DMP has released its response to an independent review of the regulatory framework governing uranium mining in WA. Read more...

Friday, 11 May 2012

Shift to online lodgement gaining momentum The increase comes ahead of the shift to online only lodgements for exploration PoW applications starting 30 May. Read more...

Wednesday, 9 May 2012

Safety alert for 'small mine' operators Small quarries and sand pits – specifically those that produce products for sale or commercial use – are considered to be ‘small mines’ and therefore may fall under the Mines Safety and Inspection Act 1994 Read more...

Wednesday, 9 May 2012

Major reform of environmental regulation announced DMP to implement a Reforming Environmental Regulation (RER) program, which will fully integrate a risk based approach to achieve best practice in regulatory services Read more...

Friday, 4 May 2012

EIS funded seismic survey begins near Esperance Seismic surveys have commenced near Esperance to provide data in the search for better geological understanding and resources in the region. Read more...

Wednesday, 2 May 2012

DMP website unavailable this weekend Access to the DMP website and online services will be affected on Saturday May 5 to Sunday May 6. Read more...

Tuesday, 1 May 2012

MineSafe out now The latest magazine covers a range of mining, petroleum and dangerous goods safety issues, including legislative updates. Read more...