

Chief Executive Officer Commitment

The State Library of Western Australia is committed and accountable to meeting its due diligence obligations and primary duty of care by:

- Providing a safe and healthy working environment for staff, volunteers, contractors, visitors and others
- Integrating safe systems of work in its vision, values and business management operations
- Continually improving occupational safety and health, and injury management (OSH&IM) prevention and return to work programs to the highest standard
- Taking reasonable practical steps to deliver effective, equitable, safe systems of work and injury management services to help ill or injured workers achieve their best recovery and return to safe and suitable employment
- Complying with relevant legislation, such as Work Health and Safety Act 2020 (WA); Work Health and Safety Regulations 2022 (WA); Worker's Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981 guidance notes and other relevant State Government and departmental organisational policies and procedures
- Using suitable internal or external expertise when needed

This commitment will be achieved by consulting with staff, safety and health representatives, committees, unions, and others, wherever relevant.

Catherine Clark
CEO and State Librarian
September 2022

slwa.wa.gov.au